

Getting a Seat at the Table...

...Depends on What You Bring to the Table

On-Line Course from UNLV
"Effective HR Management in the Gaming Industry"
March 5 - April 28, 2012

This program has been pre-approved by the HR Certification Institute for 35 general recertification credit hours.

"The use of this seal is not an endorsement by the HR Certification Institute of the quality of the program. It means that this program has met the HR Certification Institute's criteria to be pre-approved for recertification credit."

Comments from previous participants:

"Valuable and relevant course content for HR professionals."

"The lectures provided pertinent examples that I could relate to — Dave's description of how he applied the various models or processes were effective in demonstrating how we could apply them at our own properties. I came away from every session feeling inspired."

"I learned a great deal in a short period of time."

For information: go to igi.unlv.edu and click on on-line courses

Course Instructor: Dave Newton, SPHR, MBA

Dave Newton has over 20 years experience in human resources and training, including six years as Vice President of Human Resources at the Venetian, which won two awards for Workplace Excellence under his leadership.

Prior to the Venetian, he was Corporate Director of Human Resources for Station Casinos. Mr. Newton brings an operational viewpoint to human resources, having worked in front office operations at The Waldorf-Astoria and as a hotel general manager.

Mr. Newton has an M.B.A. in management from Pace University in New York and a Bachelor's degree from Cornell University's School of Industrial and Labor Relations.

